

The Society of Trust and Estate Practitioners (STEP) is the principal professional body for trust and estate practitioners worldwide providing its members with education, training, representation and networking opportunities. STEP members are experts in estates and succession, domestic and offshore trusts, trust and estate litigation and tax planning. The STEP network comprises some 5,000 UK members and over 12,000 members worldwide, spanning 33 countries in common, civil and sharia law jurisdictions. STEP qualifications and membership will ensure that you remain ahead of the competition, on top of regulation and at the head of your profession. To learn more about STEP, visit www.step.org

STEP qualifications at The IBS

Two qualifications from the Society of Trust and Estate Practitioners are delivered at the Isle of Man International Business School by Central Law Training (CLT) - a specialist provider of training for legal, corporate, financial, property, and other professional sectors. CLT is committed to the provision of quality education and training and has attained the ISO 9001:2000 standard to ensure that the highest degree of quality is maintained at all times throughout its training and assessment operations.

Your prospects

You will gain an academic and professional award recognised by your Industry. Upon completion of the Diploma you can use the designation Dip(ITM). Full STEP membership will be granted to you when you complete the Diploma and can show that you have two years relevant experience. You can then use the designation TEP (Trust and Estate Practitioner) to illustrate that you are one of the most experienced and senior practitioners in your field.
